

Joint Account Agreement

I request that my account be transferred and converted to a joint account with my spouse, as provided by Article III, Section 2, of the Bylaws of the Cooperative. I understand that all accounts associated with the joint account will be registered and held as a joint tenancy.

Holders of a joint account are equally responsible for the rights and liabilities of a membership. Both joint account holders are responsible for account debt and both receive patronage capital allocated to a joint account and payable by the Cooperative upon retirement of capital by the Cooperative's Board of Directors.
