

Patronage Capital Relinquishment Agreement

Account Number

I, (print name) _____, do hereby relinquish my rights to any and all patronage capital credits that have been allocated to date in connection with the joint membership associated with the above-listed account with CORE Electric Cooperative. I also request that CORE remove my name from the joint membership.

I hereby waive my right to any future patronage allocations or retired capital credit payments to the joint membership associated with the above-listed account, and I understand that such allocations and payments will be made to the other member of the joint membership.

I understand that CORE will accept and process this request only if the billing statuses of all active accounts associated with the joint membership are current.

I have read this Patronage Capital Relinquishment Agreement and execute it voluntarily and with full knowledge of its legal significance.
